

Social Media Guidelines for Website

Wray State Bank and its branches are present on social media sites such as, but not limited to Facebook®, Instagram®, LinkedIn®, and Twitter®. Social media pages are public and anyone can participate. Wray State Bank is not responsible for views expressed on these sites other than our own. Any content that you post, is subject to the Terms of Use and Privacy Policies of those sites.

In accordance with standard social media protocol, Wray State Bank may delete comments or posts that we deem to be:

- Profane, obscene, inappropriate, disruptive, or unrelated
- Threats, personal attacks, abusive, insulting, derogatory, or inflammatory language, or stalking or harassment of any individual, entity, or organization
- Discriminatory comments that contain hateful speech of any kind: age, gender, race, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, or disability
- Indecent, sexually explicit or pornographic material of any kind
- False, inaccurate, libelous, or misleading in any way
- Spam, or containing or linking to any kind of virus, malware, spyware, or similar program that could cause harm to a user's computer

We encourage our fans and followers to never disclose any financial information on any of the Wray State Bank social media sites. We will never ask for your Social Security number, account information, passwords, or PINs via these sites. Wray State Bank is not responsible for the privacy and security policies of the social media sites where we are present.

The general disclaimer is in addition to any disclaimers we may have in our general banking documents. The terms of this disclaimer extend to Wray State Bank, its directors, officers, and employees.
